Procedure

1. Display images of women in contemporary society and ask students to work with a partner to summarize how contemporary visual media portrays women and their role in society.
2. Discuss student findings. Based on their own life experiences, ask students how accurately and completely these images depict women's lives and importance to society. Explain that students will use historical images to describe the lives and roles of women during World War I.
3. Divide class into groups and ask each group to consider the topic The Role of Women in World War I.
4. Ask students to search the LOUISiana Digital Library for images of women related to their period of time and use the Visual Perspectives: Women in World War I Note-taking Guide to record important information related to the role of women. (Demonstrate the collection search and advanced search features of the LOUISiana Digital Library)
5. Ask students to prepare a short multimedia presentation of their research. Explain that a multimedia presentation is a visual essay. Distribute copies of and discuss the Essay Rubric, Multimedia Presentation Rubric, and Multimedia Storyboard to demonstrate how presentation preparation and guidelines for each medium are similar.
6. Explain and/or demonstrate how students may copy images, save images, and/or use the My Favorites function of the LOUISiana Digital Library to prepare a PowerPoint slideshow. Please refer to the viewers and help and my favorites pages of the LOUISiana Digital Library for help and additional information

7. Provide access to computers and allow adequate time for research and collaboration.
8. Use the Observation Form to record anecdotal information about peer collaboration.
9. Student Presentations
10. Debrief. Use student presentations to discuss how visual images and popular perception illustrate/shaped the roles of women in World War I. Ask students what factors contributed to the progression of changes women witnessed during this period (technology, legal status, women's rights movement, societal needs, changes in media, etc)
11. Culminate by asking students to use what they learned to write an essay about the role of women in World War I.
12. Extension: You may ask students to prepare a visual expression that best represents the role of women in contemporary society. Distribute or display copies of the rubrics listed in the Materials section of this lesson.
